Bell County Attorney Declares College Group Was Sent Out by New York Communist Organizations.

Middlesboro Authorities Warn Against 'Milicious Intrusion' Within Mining Area.

BY C. ROBERT KAY.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., March 25. (AP)—A group of stern college students who wanted to investigate the labor controversy in the Kentucky coal fields were hustled out of town tonight after an investigation by County Attorney Walter E. Smith.

After an examination of a number of members of the group of 40 to 50, the county attorney told them he had information they were sent into southeastern Kentucky by communists. He then told them they would have to make $1,000 peace bond each or leave the state, and added, "We know you can't post this bond."

With a number of them protesting that their rights were being violated, they were put back into the bus and two automobiles in which they had arrived from New York via Knoxville, and headed towards Cumberland Gap and the Tennessee border.

Not Wanted in Tennessee. When the group reached Cumberland Gap, border city, Sheriff Frank Riley met them and informed their leaders they could not stop in Claiborne county, over which he has jurisdiction.

Sheriff Riley and members of his force were waiting for the students as they reached the Tennessee line. They asked assistance of the Kentucky authorities escorting the students out of the Blue Grass state to take the visitors on through Claiborne county.

The sheriff's action precluded the possibility of the students stopping at Tazewell, Tenn., as they were reported to have planned.

N. R. Patterson, a lawyer, advised the crowd of spectators that named the courthouse here during Smith's examination of the students and urged that there be no violence.

Two men who gave their names as Clifford Sing and John Jennings, who accompanied the students here, were separated from them. Some students said they had been told by "Union representatives who had been taken on as guides."

Robert Hall, a Columbia University senior, who acted as spokesman for the student group, told the county attorney "I would rather be put in jail than have my rights violated."

Mr. Smith told him if he behaved on the trip to the state line he would not be jailed.

Attorney's Warning. After telling the students he had information that the communists had sent them into Kentucky, the county attorney said "the people of Bell county won't tolerate having any of their rights violated by people representing communists. We shall regard you as malicious intruders into our county."

As the automobiles paused momentarily at the state line, County Attorney Smith showed the students a letter he said had been confiscated in the Tazewell (Tenn.) jail. He said it was from a New York communist to a communist in jail at Tazewell and told of plans for the "rah rah" boys and girls to visit the coal fields.

Why Buy Second Piece Of This Kind of Pie?

VALDOSTA, Ga., March 25.—Four suits filed in the city court ask damages aggregating $21,686 for various alleged injuries.

Most unusual among the suits is one for $5,000 brought by J. M. Edwards against a baking company of this city. Edwards charges in the petition, filed by Edwards Weston, his attorneys, that he purchased two pieces of pie made by the defendant company and the pie made him desperately ill and that he continues to suffer from the effects of the pastry.

Annexation of District Passed by Grand Juries of Two Counties; Cobb Action Is Ratified.

Annexation by Fulton county of Roswell militia district in Cobb county, linking old Fulton and the recently acquired Milton county territory by Roswell bridge over the Chattahoochee, lacks only the promised approval of the Fulton county commission.

The Fulton grand jury and the Cobb county commission Friday agreed to the moving of the Cobb-Fulton boundary line, moving Roswell into Fulton county.

The Fulton grand jury approved the proposal following a visit by a large delegation of Roswell citizens to the grand jury room, and citizens led by Mayor C. P. Vaughn, of Roswell.

Cobb Jury's Action Ratified. Approval by the Cobb county grand jury in presentments returned last Wednesday was ratified Friday morning at a meeting of Commissioner J. M. Stone, of Cobb, and the advisory commissioners, H. C. Carpenter, clerk of court, and Judge J. M. Gann, of Roswell.

Commissioner George F. Longino, chairman of the Fulton finance committee, told the Fulton grand jury that the commissioners had delegated him to advise the grand jury that the annexation will be ratified by the commission if the grand jury vote was favorable. After the Fulton commission's approval is given the annexation will be advertised after a period of 30 days by Ordinary Thomas H. Jeffries.

The Cobb county commission's action was the final step in that county in the annexation proceedings. The Fulton county commission may hold a special meeting in the next few days to pass on the matter, it was indicated by Chairman Paul S. Etheridge. The next regular meeting of the Fulton commission will be on April 6.

Vote Is Unanimous. Immediately after the delegation left the grand jury room, the jury voted unanimously to approve the annexation, and news of the action was responsible for enthusiastic cheers from the delegation.

Mayor Vaughn said that Roswell district has a population of 1,500, five square miles of territory, with a taxable value of $500,000. The district is in the heart of the Roswell-Roswell citizens have been advocating the merger with Fulton for more than 25 years, he said. The petition of Roswell citizens asking for the

Zack Miller Answers To the Law For Trigger Tactics to Halt Sale

NEWKIRK, Okla., March 25.—(AP)—Colonel Zack Miller responded to the law today for his trigger finger defiance of a receiver's auction sale of the equipment of the 101 ranch.

The last of the Miller brothers, founders of the famous ranch, came calmly to county court for arraignment on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. Yesterday he fired a shotgun into his ranch house floor behind a receiver's attorney as a protest against the auction.

County Judge R. M. Parkhurst accepted bail of $15,000 as well as $1,000 peace bond, pending a preliminary hearing April 15.

Colonel Miller, his face drawn with illness, did not enter a plea.

SALES TAX DEFEAT, GEORGIA PRIMARY END GARNER BOOM

Roosevelt Sweep Looms as Additional Pledges of Support Pour in From Other States.

BY THOMAS L. STOKES.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(UP)—The continued advance of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, and a disturbing blight across the prestige of Speaker of the House John N. Garner, of Texas, were the predominant developments this week in the democratic presidential scramble.

Roosevelt marched triumphantly through the primary in Georgia, sometimes called his "adopted state" because of his frequent visits to the Warm Springs resort there. Georgia always has been sentimentally inclined toward the name of Roosevelt. President Theodore Roosevelt's mother was born there.

During the week Senator Alben W. Barkley, of Kentucky, regarded as his state's favorite son, stepped down in favor of Roosevelt, which was hailed by Roosevelt leaders as assurance that Kentucky's delegation of 26 would be unanimously for the New York governor at the convention.

Roosevelt sponsors claimed other favorite son candidates would follow this lead in the next few months.

Garner was a factor in the Georgia race, but only through a proxy whom Garner declined to endorse publicly. It was not the poor showing of Judge G. H. Howard, of Atlanta, the proxy, that affected the Texas candidate, but the sharp blow to his leadership by the decisive defeat of the sales tax in the house of representatives.

Service in House. It was Garner's success as a house leader that largely attracted attention to him as a possible presidential candidate. No leader has been more roughly overruled since the 1910 revolution against Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, one-time house "czar."

Roosevelt carried every county in Georgia and for the state as a whole rolled up a majority of eight to one, a fact which his supporters pointed to as demonstrating his popular appeal.

It probably was not premeditated, but it was at least coincidental that just on the eve of the sales tax vote in the house, Roosevelt received a telegram from Governor Roosevelt designating him chairman and naming the other members of the committee.

Anticipation of the state convention was heightened when Governor Roosevelt in naming the delegates, according to rules of the state committee adopted at Macon last February, designated as chairman Dr. R. B. Gilbert, of Greenville, president of the original Greenback county Roosevelt-for-President Club.

Trial of Chief A. L. Poole Set for Thursday Night

Suspended Head of Detective Department Must Go Before Committee on Various Charges Filed by Chief James L. Beavers.

A Lamar Poole, first assistant chief of police in charge of the detective bureau, will face trial next Thursday night on a series of charges complaining of inefficiency, insubordination and irregularities in releasing accused prisoners.

He was suspended shortly before noon Friday by order of Chief of Police James L. Beavers, who filed the charges against his former trusted lieutenant, and was succeeded by Detective Lieutenant T. O. Sturdivant, to whom Beavers hopes to give Poole's job. Sturdivant also is Beavers' choice for chief of police in the event of the retirement of the chief.

Branding the series of charges on which Poole must stand trial as "a petty politics ploy to oust an honorable man," William Schley Howard, chief of defense counsel, Friday night laid plans for a "fight to the finish."

Howard will be backed by an imposing array of the city's leading legal lights, including James A. Branch, W. P. Carpenter and H. A. Allen, while Beavers will be supported by the ouster move against his former personal friend and political ally in City Attorney James L. Mayson.

"Anyone who has taken the trouble to read the complaints realizes they are a trumped-up set of charges, born in politics and conceived in a desire to oust a man who has done his job for the best interests of all the citizens of Atlanta. There is no foundation for them. If Poole, in the administration of his office, made a mistake and issued copies of charges to persons who failed to appear in court, it was the duty of one of Beavers' men, paid for that purpose alone, to run them down, force them into court and prefer charges of contempt of court against them."

"If Beavers knew of these things, he should have had those who disregarded the copies of charges handed before the recorders and should have seen that they were punished."

"Many of the complaints are of long standing. Poole is the most efficient, best man in the entire department. Never before in the long history of I do not believe this honorable police committee of council will back Beavers in his effort to run a man out of the department just because he is a person who has done his job. The man under fire has an honorable record of achievement. He has been in the department for nearly 34 years. Beavers has fought at his side. If he has been what the complaints say, he should have been run out of the service long before."

"We intend to fight every inch of the way and will leave no stone unturned in our efforts to show just what is behind all this agitation. Never before in the long history of the Atlanta police department has any officer been called before the police committee to fight for his job on such a flimsy and unsubstantial list of complaints."

"Chief Poole denies each and every one of the silly charges made against him. He has never attempted to do his job for the best interests of all the citizens of Atlanta. There is no foundation for them. If Poole, in the administration of his office, made a mistake and issued copies of charges to persons who failed to appear in court, it was the duty of one of Beavers' men, paid for that purpose alone, to run them down, force them into court and prefer charges of contempt of court against them."

DEFINITE ADVANCE NOTED IN BANKING BY RESERVE BOARD

Legislative Program Has Speeded Recovery of Nation's Financial Structure, Officials Say.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—A definite improvement in the nation's banking situation was seen today by the federal reserve board and attributed to action taken by congress to expand credit.

The board ascribed an upward trend to the law creating the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the organization of the corporation's work and the enactment of the Glass-Steagall bill to increase the powers of the federal reserve system. It said the latter had increased the system's power to co-operate in business recovery and had strengthened the credit structure of the country.

"The improvement in condition is indicated by a pronounced decline in the number of bank failures, by a strengthening of the bond market and by a return flow of currency from the public to the banks," the board said.

The board reviewed the Glass-Steagall bill, explaining that its provisions for increased powers of the federal reserve system were meant to be used in emergencies to aid banks which found themselves in difficulties. Speaking of the broadening of the reserve system's powers, the board said it permits banks in difficulties to get funds from federal reserve banks on sound assets not eligible heretofore, the board said.

"Provisions in the new bill, however, do not deal with the question of eligibility under ordinary circumstances and do not contemplate any enlargement in the definitions of eligible paper. These sections are intended to provide for unusual and temporary conditions where an individual member bank, for example, because of loss of deposits either through gradual withdrawals or through a run, finds itself under necessity of disposing of some of its sound but ineligible assets or else closing its doors and going into the hands of a receiver, with the subsequent loss to its depositors, had no effect on the banking situation."

To Continue Operation. "Under the new law the federal reserve banks in such circumstances are in a position to make it possible for the bank to continue in operation if it has a sufficient amount of good assets to justify the desired credit expansion," the board said.

The board also hailed the provisions of the law broadening the securities which may be used to guarantee the currency of the bank, and the investigation failed to shake the belief of the Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock, one of the three, in the authenticity of the approaches made by "go-between."

He added, however, unless this is done, the depression would continue indefinitely.

The chief executive in a formal statement described a balanced budget as "the very keystone of recovery," and said increased revenues were necessary to accomplish it.

"Must Be Done." "It must be done," he insisted. "Without it the several measures for restoration of public confidence and reconstruction which we already have undertaken will be incomplete and the depression prolonged indefinitely."

Senator Borah today called for a deep slash in expenditures as a means of making up for revenue that would have come from the sales tax.

"We should balance the budget," he said.

Alert Secretaries Save Chicagoans From Swindle

CHICAGO, March 25.—(UP)—Skeptical private secretaries have saved two wealthy Chicagoans $8,030 in a swindle which cost a third prominent victim nearly that amount recently.

"Cablegrams" purported to be from Edward A. Cudahy, meat packer, and Walter R. Kirk, president of the Dickinson Corporation, both traveling abroad, were sent to their secretaries.

The employees were instructed to turn over a sum of money without questions to a man who would deliver several "stones."

CONGRESSMAN EYES TEXAS 'CORN LIKKER'

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A threat to visit Texas for the purpose of sampling some of the Lone Star state's "corn" was made Friday by Representative Horr, Washington, during the course of debate over the proposed beer tax amendment to the revenue bill.

Answering arguments of Representative Blanton, who dry Texas democrat, Horr said a tax was put on the incomes of bootleggers but that the "sanctimonious drys hesitated" to impose a tax on beer.

He said he was going down in Blanton's district and "drink some of your corn likker."

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(P)—An unbridled house today brushed aside a beer tax proposal but approved a one-cent-a-gallon levy on imported oil as part of the new revenue bill.

More by chance than direction, the rejected sales tax, President Hoover at the White House expressed confidence the democrats and republicans on Capitol Hill could get together on a bill to balance the 1933 budget. He added, however, unless this is done, the depression would continue indefinitely.

Bernard A. Behrend Found Shot to Death

WELLESLEY, Mass., March 25.—(AP)—Bernard Arthur Behrend, 56, internationally known consulting engineer and authority on electricity, was found shot to death in his Wellesley Hills home today. The house was locked and a pistol lay on the floor near his body. He had been in ill health recently and had been a patient at the Cambridge hospital. Charles McGinnis, of Waltham, reported to the police that he had driven Behrend from Cambridge to his home in Wellesley, which had been closed. When Behrend failed to return to McGinnis' car after a "prolonged interval," he said he tried to get into the big house but found it locked. A motorcycle officer was summoned, broke in and found Behrend dead on the floor of an upper bedroom. Shortly after the shooting, Mrs. Behrend arrived by automobile from Boston and the police informed her that her husband apparently had shot himself.

Marriage Postponed By Eugenia Bankhead
NICE, France, March 25.—(UP)—Eugenia Bankhead's proposal to marry her former husband, Morton Hoyt, the third time, was delayed Thursday and probably abandoned. Miss Bankhead is negotiating for a contract to appear in motion pictures to be filmed in Europe. Hoyt, whose illness brought her here from California, is convalescing. They were to have been married February 20 and later it was said they would be wed on March 24. Now it is indefinitely postponed. Miss Bankhead has gone to Juan-Les-Pins and Hoyt is here.

coming to Moscow to treat Joseph Stalin, Russia's strong man, came from authoritative quarters today. The communist party leader's health was said to be normal in every respect.

A report from Berlin yesterday said that Professor Zondek was going to Moscow ostensibly to lecture, but that it was rumored he would treat Stalin.

MINE OWNERS, STATE WAGE STRIKE BATTLE
COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 25.—(AP)—The strikers of bituminous coal miners in Ohio seemed to have settled down to a battle of words between state officials and the owners of mines. The adjutant general said the Ohio national guard would not be called out for the exclusive benefit of any "interest or individual" and would be used, if necessary, only to restore and maintain order and to protect the guaranteed rights of all citizens.

Woman Runs for Council On "No-Joke" Platform
EVANSTON, Ill., March 25.—(UP)—Mrs. Daisy Sandige announced her candidacy for alderman today on the following platform: "If I'm elected, I promise to sit in the city council chamber at every meeting so all the other aldermen will tend to business instead of telling jokes about 'Pat and Mike' and the 'farmers' daughter.'"

Crooner's Critic Slays Girl in Speakeasy
CHICAGO, March 25.—(UP)—A radio crooner inadvertently caused the death of a 23-year-old girl here today. Miss Evelyn Renshaw, of Dubuque, Iowa, was in an alleged speakeasy when a tipsy customer, dissatisfied with the radio program, being received, shouted: "That's a terrible crooner."

He pulled out his gun and emptied it in the general direction of the radio. One of the bullets struck Miss Renshaw, daughter of a United States deputy marshal, killing her.

Attorney Sues Loesch For Capone Charges
CHICAGO, March 25.—(AP)—William Harillo, assistant United States district attorney, late today filed the praecipe of a $250,000 damage suit against Frank J. Loesch, veteran head of the Chicago crime commission, who described him yesterday in a telegram to Senator William E. Borah as "a partisan of Scarface Al Capone."

CALIFORNIAN ENDS LIFE IN FLA. LODGE TEMPLE
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—Dependent over the recent fatal shooting of his wife, Louise, in a New York hotel, Gerald Sturgis Greenleaf, about 40, of Santa Barbara, Cal., committed suicide in a lodge temple here today by drinking poison. Among the papers was a clipping from the New York Times of March 4, which stated Greenleaf's wife had been found shot to death in an apartment at the Hotel Greystone on the previous day. The newspaper said Greenleaf disappeared after writing three notes, asserting his wife had killed herself and that he was going to take his life by drowning.

Mara Asks Democratic Chief Why He Did Not Pay $50,000 Note.

NEW YORK, March 25.—(AP)—Timothy J. Mara, sports promoter, who is being sued by the County Trust Company for payment of a $50,000 note he signed during the 1928 presidential campaign, issued a statement today asking why John J. Raskob, indorser of the note, did not pay the $50,000 and then sue him.

He challenged Raskob to have him prosecuted for perjury, accused the chairman of the democratic national committee of "a lack of knowledge of politics," and said Raskob was anxious to have himself recognized as "the only chairman who was able to bring the committee out of debt."

Yo-Yo Fun Bug Scores Season's Heaviest Hit In Demonstration at Atlanta Ball Park

Yo-yo, the Filipino fun top, scored another direct hit Friday at the ball park, when the girls at the Fox and several members of the Toronto team gave a demonstration of yo-yoing.

The nation's newest fad is sweeping Atlanta like a cyclone and young and old alike are trying to figure out the mystery of the little wooden discs. The stage player and the ball players did their stuff. What they didn't make the yo-yo do wasn't worth doing. It walked the dog; it back-flipped; it did the Kentucky Derby; in fact it nearly talked. After several minutes of watching the almost unbelievable antics which these little discs were put through, several of the attendants in the park were numbered among the audience.

The next time you visit a downtown theater and the performance is a little slow getting started, don't get hot under the collar about it, because the performers, or the operators, or the stage hands, may be busily engaged in a red hot yo-yo contest, and who wouldn't wait until one of these things is through?

General Motors Stages Its Great Show Here on April 2-9 Showing All Products

So immense are the exhibitions of G. M. products to be shown in 55 cities that a factory was specially engaged to supply the draperies for the exhibition halls. Local G. M. executives are shown inspecting draperies for the Atlanta show. Left to right, O. T. Madson, publicity chairman; J. M. Wilson, general chairman; P. L. L'Engle, chairman of the decorating committee, and L. G. Seaton, show supervisor.

A mammoth exhibition of all General Motors products in every branch of operation will be staged by the company at the Palais Peachtree on April 2-9, J. M. Wilson, executive of the S. E. Sales Company, the General Motors sales organization in the southeast, announced on Friday.

This show will be one of 55 which will be held by General Motors in the most important American cities. The plan is to stimulate business through these exhibitions.

The announcement of the local plans was made at a meeting of some 300 General Motors officials and employees at the Biltmore hotel.

A challenge by the Chamber of Commerce of Charlotte, N. C., the nearest other city where such an exhibition will be held, was announced at the Biltmore meeting and accepted by the Atlanta group. They will contest for the largest attendance during the exhibit, figured proportionately on the basis of population. The award will be a silver loving cup, Mr. Wilson announced. Lee

Sacred Easter Cantata Offered By St. Luke's Episcopal Choir

When St. Luke's Episcopal choir, Hugh Hodgson, director, presented Rossini's sacred Easter cantata, "Stabat Mater," on Good Friday evening it was a performance that challenged description, so finished was it in every detail of chorus and solo alike, so inspirational and worshipful was the prevailing spirit, so abounding in good musical taste and color and ensemble was its entirety. A chorus of about 50 voices blended in sublime harmonies and stirring climaxes, highly sympathetic to their masterly director, to move an audience that packed the church, with standing room taken.

A reverent atmosphere was created in the effective procession, when the vested chorists marched in the darkened church in Chopin's "Funeral March." Mr. Hodgson at the organ and Miss Mozelle Horton at the piano.

The rector, Rev. John Moore Walker, read the message of "Stabat Mater." The introduction, "Lord Most Holy," was followed by the choir, with James Gier, tenor, singing the solo. C. E. Drummond, tenor, sang with fine feeling the familiar "Cujus Animam." The next number, "Power Eternal," a duet sung by Miss Minna Hecker and Miss Helen Coyne Riley, sopranos, excelled in exquisite beauty.

Coleman Kimbro used his rich baritone voice to advantage in the air, "Through the Darkness." A quartet composed of Mrs. C. E. Drummond, Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mr. Drummond and Mr. Kimbro, rendered "I have Longed for Thy Salvation" in intimate manner. Miss Riley's solo, "I Will Sing of Thy Great Mercy," won praise for her lovely voice. This was followed by "When Thou Comest," by Miss Hecker and chorus, bringing forth heavenly beauty in vocal tone.

Seldom, if ever, has Atlanta heard finer chorus work than the final "Amen Chorus"—"To Him Be Glory." This number, as all the chorus numbers, reflected glory upon their esteemed choirman, Mr. Hodgson.

Much was added to the ensemble by the accompaniment furnished by Mr. Hodgson, organ; Miss Horton, piano; Miss Ruth Dabney Smith, violin; Miss Santa Mueller, violin; Joe Glazer, violin, and Mrs. Priscilla Lowmeyer, cello.

Offertory numbers were Mendelssohn's "Funeral March," played by Mrs. Smith, Miss Horton and Mr. Hodgson; and Massenet's "Elegy," Mrs. Loemker and Mr. Hodgson.

The recessional was marked to the somber and dramatic strains of Beethoven's "Funeral March," played by Miss Horton and Mr. Hodgson.

BROWN EXONERATED OF MURDER IN COBB

Grand Jury Also Reports No Concrete Evidence of Fraud in Recent Election.

MARIETTA, Ga., March 25.—The March term of Cobb superior court adjourned here after being in session for two weeks. The term just concluded saw the trial of several cases which have attracted considerable interest in the county.

Fred Brown, who was charged with slaying his wife, was acquitted. Brown was found critically wounded last July and lying in the road near here beside the dead body of his wife to whom he had been married less than a month. He remained in a critical condition in an Atlanta hospital for several months but recovered and was indicted last fall. The state charged in the trial that Brown had shot and killed his wife and then turned the gun on himself.

G. C. Lydia, known as the "Indian doctor," was convicted for practicing medicine without a license. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and was given a 12-month chain gang sentence and six months' jail term. The jail and chain gang sentence were pronounced on payment of the fine. Judge James B. Maddox, of Rome, presided at the trial of the Lydia case, replacing Judge J. H. Lewis, of Marietta, who was disqualified. Attorneys for Lydia filed a skeleton motion for a new trial.

Outstanding features of the grand jury presentations were the recommendation that Roswell district be released and the report on the jury's investigation of concrete instances of corruption in the county election held here February 3. The report stated that the jury had been unable to secure any evidence of concrete instances of corruption from the large number of witnesses who were questioned.

BATTLE OVER ESTATE SETTLED FOR $7,500

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 25.—(AP)—A two-year court battle over the estate of Miss Mary E. Anderson has been ended by a court order signed by Judge A. L. Franklin in Richmond superior court.

The order authorizes settlement for $7,500 with heirs of Miss Anderson. The heirs are Foster P. Reynolds, J. H. Anderson, Mrs. M. A. Jones, Joseph J. Reynolds and Mrs. J. O. A. Clark. The settlement is contingent on dropping of all court litigation involving the estate through the heirs.

The will of Linwood C. Hayne and Miss Anderson provided the two estates go to establish a home for Richmond county incurables at the home of Mr. Hayne.

Miss Anderson's heirs went into court on the contention the funds were not sufficient for adequate maintenance of the home.

Assets of the estates were reported at one time to exceed $300,000. The receiver of George M. Stanton, administrator of the estate, in a recent statement said the present aggregate sums of the estate "will hardly exceed the sum of $80,000 to $75,000." Stanton has been adjudged insane.

Application for the order ending the court litigation set forth that such action would prevent Stanton's receivers from being involved in costly litigation which would further dissipate the assets of the estate.

change was signed by 738 men and women.

In a short talk to the grand jury, Commissioner Etheridge said that the citizens of Roswell district "are fine people and will be a great asset to Fulton county." Etheridge paid high tribute to the character of citizens in Roswell district. Commissioner Longino called attention to the fact that Roswell school facilities will be made available to persons in old Milton, near Roswell, who have never had adequate school opportunities.

Would Aid Fulton Police.

Chief George Mathieson, of the Fulton police said the annexation would aid his department, as Fulton police now have to pass through Cobb county in going from one part of Fulton to another, the Roswell bridge being the nearest bridge over the river for reaching old Milton from old Fulton.

John E. Smith, member of the Grady hospital board of trustees, spoke for the annexation plan, pointing out that "this is Leap year, and Roswell district has a perfect right to propose marriage to Fulton county." H. M. Broadwell, city clerk of Roswell; Mrs. Chessie Polfey, postmistress of North Roswell; Henry B. Kennedy, Atlanta banker, and others spoke before the grand jury.

Mayor Vaughn said that the district has no bonded indebtedness. Advantages will result to both Roswell and Fulton county from abolition of the city school system, he said. The most important roads in the district are paved, and the main highway through Roswell links Atlanta and Alpharetta, the county seat of old Milton, he pointed out.

Unemployed Again Prospecting For Gold in North Georgia Hills

BY ROBERT BUNELLE.

DAHLONEGA, Ga., March 25.—

(P)—The gold hills of the southern Appalachians, little worked in the years since discovery of more opulent fields in the west, are attracting the unemployed.

Armed with picks, shovels and sluice-pans, numbers who have found time hanging heavy on their hands or encountered the bottom of the meal barrel have gone up the creeks in the back country of Dixie's old gold belt to prospect.

Back before the days of the Forty-Niners when gold was rarer and harder to get than in these times of scientific mining, millions of dollars' worth of the metal was taken from the north Georgia mountains around Dahlonega and Auraria.

A mint functioned here and there was one at Charlotte, N. C., to handle gold mined in the Uwharrie mountains of North Carolina.

Remains of the foundation of the Dahlonega mint became the foundations for an agricultural college and the Charlotte mint came to house Red Cross and federal employment bureau activities. None thought much of the mining possibilities here or in the Uwharries for it was not so highly profitable.

Now, however, a new gold rush is on—though its participants have mainly the objective of subsistence rather than that of accumulating fortunes overnight.

Numbers are panning out gold in the North Georgia creek—averaging from 50 cents to $1 or more a day. A Dahlonega merchant buys the dust at 90 cents a pennyweight and ships it to the Philadelphia mint. Some prospectors ship their own gold.

Hypnosis by Talkies Foreseen by Fleischer

NEW YORK, March 25.—(UP)

Hypnosis by talking picture is the subject of an experiment being conducted by Max Fleischer, Paramount engineer, who believes he will soon be able to produce his results in public.

Fleischer has been working on the idea for several years, his theory being that a hypnotist, through words and actions on the screen, can exert his influence on persons in the audience who are susceptible to hypnosis.

His preliminary experiments have been highly successful and he is almost ready for a public test, he said. He has even had definite success by use of phonograph records on susceptible subjects, he said.

The widening and resurfacing of Lee street from McCall's crossing to the Clayton county line will begin within the next two weeks and paving of Route 9, from Roswell to the Forsyth county line, through Alpharetta, will start within 60 days, it was announced Friday by County Commissioner Walter B. Stewart, who has been active in obtaining the co-operation of the state highway board in the two jobs.

Contracts for the projects are to be signed in the next few days between the state highway board and Fulton county, Stewart said. Fulton county will begin immediately the construction of a new convict camp at Alpharetta on a 40-acre tract owned by the county and the new camp will house men who will work on the Route 9 paving, as well as other projects in that part of the county, Stewart said. More than 100 convicts will be housed in the camp.

ATLANTA, GA., MARCH 26, 1932.

THE ROSWELL ANNEXATION.

The approval Thursday by County Commissioner Stone, of Cobb county, and his advisory board, consisting of the clerk and ordinary of the county, of the annexation of the Roswell district by Fulton county completes the steps necessary to be taken by Cobb, the grand jury having favorably acted some time ago.

The Fulton county grand jury approved the proposal yesterday and the members of the Fulton board of county commissioners have stated that at their next meeting they will take the final action to bring this district into Fulton.

The proposal is so logical that it has met with unanimous indorsement. Although the annexation will mean that Cobb county will give up a valuable asset, that county promptly and generously acceded to the request of the people of Roswell.

The Roswell district is in a corner of Cobb, and between Fulton and Milton county, recently annexed to Fulton.

It is now necessary in traveling from one end of Fulton to the other to pass through territory which belongs to another county. The annexation of the Roswell district will correct that situation.

So Fulton is ready to welcome historic Roswell.

FARM BOARD "PROPAGANDA."

Charges that the federal farm board has used nearly a half billion dollars of public funds in the effort to "build political fences for Herbert Hoover," while the price of cotton was dropping from 18 1/2 to 14 cents, appear in the current issue of the magazine Plain Talk.

Morris A. Beale, in an article entitled "Cotton and Politics," calls attention to the many farm organizations and associations which were opposed to the present administration until taken under the wing of the farm board, when, it is alleged, "they immediately became propaganda organizations for the administration."

The article accuses former Chairman Legge and cotton member Williams of trying to "swallow whole" the National Farmers' Union in order to swing votes for the republican ticket, and charges the republican national committee with "making a colossal blunder" in its use of the farm board in that it could have built "bigger and better" political fences if it had helped the farmer instead of neglecting him and "letting the price of cotton drop from 18 to 6 cents, that of wheat from $1.84 to 73 cents and of corn from $1.20 to 52 cents."

Continuing the article says:

"The act creating the federal farm board was passed after quite a few years of pressure by farmers of the larger agricultural states. After much pressure, the word went out from high places to give the farmer a gold brick. Led by the McNary, of Oregon, the administration forces handed them a gold brick which was even hollow inside. And the federal farm board came into being."

"Experienced cotton men declare that the farm board is keeping the price of cotton down and that, instead of plowing under every third row of cotton as one member so heartily suggested, the plowing under of every member of the farm board would solve the problem better."

"For many months the protest against the activities and lack of achievement of the farm board has grown in volume and intensity, but never before has so direct a charge of political manipulation in its deliberations been made as in the article in Plain Talk."

"Undoubtedly the growing strength in congress of the movement to conserve expenses and at the same time secure more intelligent service for the farmer by abolishing the board and adding its duties to the department of agriculture, presages the demise at no distant date of this governmental agency which has been a costly fiasco both to the government and to those it was created to assist.

WHERE THE BLAME LIES.

Commenting on the fact that many counties in Georgia are being forced to carry a considerable portion of their 1930 and 1931 taxes uncollected, the Macon Telegraph expresses the belief that there will not be a "proper corrective applied to a now deplorable situation until the state is totally out of the field of 'ad valorem' taxation."

Certain it is that the ad valorem system has long outlived its usefulness, but that fact is not chiefly responsible for the unbearably heavy burden being borne by the taxpayers of the state.

No matter what method of taxation is followed, there will be no relief for the taxpayers so long as they continue to support an oligarchy of office-holders in 159 counties, more than two-thirds of which are unnecessary.

If these counties were reduced to 50 or 60 the taxpayers would be saved, it is estimated, from four to five million dollars annually—and then the great majority of those now in arrears could pay their taxes.

Georgia's army of office-holders are stumbling over one another, with little to do and doing little, but all safely ensconced on the county pay rolls.

By the adoption of a wise plan of statewide consolidations, under which adjoining groups of two, three and four counties could be merged, the present multitudinous mass of unnecessary office-holders could be reduced to a third. The immediate result would be the saving of millions of dollars to the taxpayers and the rendering of better service by the enlarged county governments.

Abandoned courthouses could be turned into the public school system to take the place of out-of-date buildings now being used, and the consolidation of jails, prison camps and county activities of all kinds would mean more and better service at reduced cost.

It is strange that the taxpayers have remained so long blind to what is the chief cause of the heavy burden they are bearing. They are being bled dry for the support of a huge army of office-holders, most of them not needed.

THE BRAZILIAN ELECTIONS.

News that the defacto government of Brazil has agreed to call an election to restore constitutional government to the country is additional indication of the apparent trend among the Latin Americans toward a more stable and conservative attitude.

Some weeks ago, Cuba retained the administration of President Machado in an election that was quiet and orderly notwithstanding the serious insurrection which occurred in the island republic last summer. Most of the leaders of that attempt to overthrow the government have now been released from prison and are actively co-operating with the efforts of the president to better conditions on the island.

Following Cuba's example, there have been indications from a number of other South American republics that their people are awakening to the economic and governmental folly of frequent overthrows in administrations.

Should Brazil proceed with her general elections in the same orderly and conclusive manner as did Cuba, she will go far towards further strengthening the new spirit of conservatism which, if it continues to develop, will put a quick end to Latin America's long record of governmental instability and insecurity.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASSEN

Is German Finished?

A prominent and keen observer, Michael Farman, after studying the situation in Germany, comes to the conclusion that the whole of Germany is committed to and lives in expectation of a change, many Germans believe that the change has taken place and that the only thing lacking is the consciousness of it.

"The disruption of the bourgeois parties," he writes, "the growth of communism, the rise of the national syndicates, the radicalization of opinion on both left and right, are all outward signs of the revolt of the middle classes and the proclamation of the new spirit in Germany."

"But the change is deeper than these indications would suggest," he goes on to say. "The world crisis is this, that whereas the latter, however severe, is a crisis which is not repugnant to capitalism, the former is one which seems to threaten its very existence. The outside world is growing more and more accustomed to the idea that the financial collapse of Germany is imminent and that the country is on the verge of bankruptcy. But the world fails to perceive that Germany is not only a more catastrophic than the rest of the world, but also a more determined to escape the implications of a German collapse. It is still time to avert the crash. But any more hesitation and Germany is lost—and we will all go down with her."

Kaiser Gets Out Mays.

A report in a Dutch newspaper states that ex-Kaiser Wilhelm is deeply interested in the military phase of the Sino-Japanese struggle. He has obtained a complete set of maps of the fighting area and is intensely studying the situation as well from the Japanese as from the Chinese standpoint, and the Holland Journal is suggesting that the all-highest may come forward with a plan one of these days that will finish the war in a jiffy.

It wouldn't be a masterpiece plan, as one may imagine to have come from so august a warlord. He simply suggested that the British should bring the Boer republics to their knees.

This, Lord Kitchener and French did in the well-known war. (Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY

WHEN A DOCTOR IS NOT A DOCTOR.

Last year bills were introduced in four state legislatures proposing that all public institutions and institutions supported wholly or in part by public revenue or exempted from taxation should be placed under the supervision of a board of health.

How can an intelligent legislature grant to practitioners of any school of healing the right to practice and even the right to use the title of "doctor" and then refuse to permit such legally licensed practitioners to function in the service of the public?

Graft is the answer. Graft in the form of palm greasing or in the form of political patronage which the legislators employ to keep themselves and their party in power.

Letters From a Bald-Headed Dad to a Flapper Daughter

BY ROBERT QUILLLEN

My Dear Louise:

I don't pretend to know anything about your sex of this generation. In fact, I don't pretend to know anything about my sex of this generation. But I do know a few things about my sex, and I want you to lend a respectful ear and believe what I say.

Numbers of men—doctors and various kinds of "ologists"—have made a reputation in the last few years by defending the "single standard of sex morality."

Their argument, in brief, is that people are animals and therefore copy the sex promiscuity of pigs; that young women have a right to be unchaste because many young men are—as though two wrongs could make right; and, finally, that broad-minded modern males neither expect nor require chastity in the girls they select as wives.

It is a fine propaganda, but it is prompted by the father of lies.

My sex isn't wholly rotten. There are many many young men who have no experience of women; many who never have kissed a girl; many, of the outdoor, he-man type, who think they despise girls—until they meet the right one.

But these are not the only ones who expect untarnished brides. The worst in libertines is still the jealous male. Every normal man, regardless of his own past, demands the right to be first in his wife's experience.

That is illogical and unfair, but it is male nature. Don't let the propagandists fool you. Men expect their women to be clean.

A youngster who has had much experience with girls may "try" every new one he meets, but he will take few chances. Unless he is drunk or completely rotten, he will go no farther than a girl's apparent willingness invites him to go.

If there is "petting" or "necking," the girl is to blame. Her standards are the ones that determine what a boy may do.

Sex is a girl's capital. It is a capital she can't rebuild. Every favor she gives away leaves her that much poorer and by so much lessens her value in the eyes of men. When she has nothing left to give, she is bankrupt and worthless.

What is more, she is despised—now as ever—by the one who took away her value and by the other rotters to whom he tells the story of his conquest.

The ways of your sex may have changed, my dear, but men still kiss and tell and still value most, things they can't get.

Love, DAD.

HOUSE REJECTS LEVY ON BEER

Born said, "and we can do so by cutting expenses. I think the gentleman who defeated the sales tax did a fine piece of work."

Discovering today that the action the bi-partisan forces in striking out the sales tax yesterday had thrown the section on proposed excise taxes into confusion the house turned to acting Chairman Crisp to straighten it out so separate votes on beer, oil, imports, wool, grape concentrates, malt and lubricating oil could be taken.

$350,000,000 Lost. Crisp proposed an amendment that allowed Representative Cullen, democrat, New York, to submit a proposal of a 3-cent-a-pint tax on beer of 2.75 per cent alcoholic content, estimated to return $350,000,000 in revenue.

It immediately opened a wet and dry fight. Representative Blanton, democrat, Texas, sought to have it ruled out of order, but Representative Bunkerhead, democrat, Alabama, sustained Cullen. After three hours of acrimonious debate it was defeated.

Backed by the Atlantic coast states delegation Representative McCormack, democrat, Massachusetts, a member of the committee, moved to strike out the oil import tax. Representatives from states in the great mid-continent oil field and the Ohio valley, however, contending that had been a verbal assault that led to victory late in the day.

The treasury estimated the oil levy would yield $700,000,000. It would not further reduce the strength of our defense. Thus we must make our further economies mainly out of this budget of $1,000,000,000, remaining from the total of $1,400,000,000.

The victory was made possible by the support of the bi-partisan group that defeated the sales tax. It came from the fact that the oil import tax was a tariff and its proponents argued it would protect the domestic petroleum industry and protect the independent producers.

Although the vote was overwhelming the "trip" bill to which it was attached still is pending the full vote tomorrow on it will definitely settle the issue. However, with the overwhelming vote today it is virtually certain to remain in the bill.

In the meantime, Representative Seiberling, republican, Ohio, served notice of a bill to propose striking out of the bill the tax on the ground that it would place a $25,000,000 burden on the industry.

This will be acted upon tomorrow, along with a proposal by Representative Schaefer, republican, Wisconsin, to amend the bill to exempt beer from the tax and malt used in brewing.

Earlier the ways and means committee, headed by Representative Cullen, democrat, Arkansas, to formulate a substitute program of excise levies for the deficit of $1,000,000,000 sales tax plan. It is expected to report the full group Monday. In the meantime, the house will continue its wrangle over the excise bill.

SIX COMPLAINTS LODGED AGAINST SUSPENDED CHIEF OF DETECTIVES.

tion for a single one of the charges on which he is to face the police commission, and we will be prepared to meet the unfair, unethical and flimsy excuses on which Beavers hopes to run the most efficient and competent man in the department out of office."

Beavers charges collusion between Police Chief Fred E. Harrison, Atlanta attorney, who committed suicide Tuesday, in releasing prisoners on copies of charges, delaying the cases and finally having them disposed of for want of prosecution.

The chief Friday afternoon said he never intended to impute to Atlanta records any participation in the collusion he charged.

"I was misunderstood in this matter," Beavers said, "never intended to say that the judges knew of any such arrangement. In fact, I am sure they did not. They were asked to dismiss cases after long delays, but the time the appeal was made. In many instances the defendants were not notified and not subject to judgment before the courts, and there was nothing left for the recorders to do but dismiss them."

The following have been summoned as witnesses for the prosecution of the complaints: Judge A. W. Callaway, Beavers, J. B. Chandler, A. J. Holman, J. C. Lunday, M. C. Williams, S. N. Starnes, T. B. Lanford, S. A. Smith, J. A. McKibben, B. E. Blair, J. W. Anderson, J. C. Simmons, J. J. Chester and Jack T. Malcom.

Text of Charges. Following is the complete text of the charges which Beavers filed: "CHARGE—I charge A. L. Poole with the offenses specified in Paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 herein:

"ONE—in that the said A. L. Poole did fail to carry out orders contained in a letter addressed to him by the chief of police on April 22, 1932, (said letter being hereto attached marked exhibit A), said orders requiring the said A. L. Poole to make daily reports of the work done and being done each day by members of the detective bureau engaged upon important and serious cases. This in the city of Atlanta on March 22, 1932, and on divers dates prior thereto.

"TWO—in that the said A. L. Poole has continuously neglected his duty by spending practically all of his office time in the act of going out and supervising the work being done on important cases by the men under his command and keeping him from his office and neglecting his duties in discharging the duties assigned to them, all of which is detrimental to the service. This in the city of Atlanta on March 22, 1932, and on divers dates prior thereto.

"THREE—in that the said A. L. Poole has allowed an employee, Mrs. J. Langdon, 13 good days for no reason except that in fact no extra time had been worked by said employee. This in the city of Atlanta on December 22, 1931, and on divers dates prior thereto.

Insubordination Alleged. "FOUR—in that the said A. L. Poole did on January 30, 1932, when ordered by the chief of police, neglect to make an investigation of a report made by Detective De Buca, who was held on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

"FIVE—in that the said A. L. Poole is and has been guilty of conduct injurious to the public peace and good order of the city of Atlanta, in that he has authorized and directed the release from custody without bond of one T. M. Lane, who was held on a charge of speeding, and persons charged with serious violations of the ordinances of the city of Atlanta and the criminal laws of the state of Georgia as follows, to wit:

"a.—On or about June 25, 1927, the said A. L. Poole did authorize and direct the release from custody without bond of one W. C. Jackson, who was held on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

"b.—On or about September 14, 1927, the said A. L. Poole did, at the instance of Fred E. Harrison, authorize and direct the release from custody without bond of one Charlie Thomas, who was held on a charge of stabbing.

"c.—On or about October 8, 1927, the said A. L. Poole did, at the instance of Fred E. Harrison, authorize and direct the release from custody without bond of one Will De Buca, who was held on a charge of drunk and disorderly.

"d.—On or about October 22, 1927, the said A. L. Poole did authorize and direct the release from custody without bond of one A. Lowery, who was held on a charge of reckless driving of an automobile and having an accident.

"e.—On or about August 3, 1928, the said A. L. Poole did, at the instance of Fred E. Harrison, authorize and direct the release from custody without bond of one L. Trammell, who was held on a charge of drunk and disorderly.

"B. C." Relieves Periodical Pains In Three Minutes

It is so unnecessary to suffer more after month from inorganic pains, because "B. C." will bring soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." is prepared as a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, used by many physicians, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of common colds, headaches and neuralgia, muscular aches and pains, reducing fever and for quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit-forming drugs. Get "B. C." in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold. (adv.)

PRICE FIXING BY U. S. ASKED ON FARM GOODS

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—Federal price-fixing for basic agricultural products was advocated today by Representative Andersen, Republican, Minnesota, a member of the house agriculture committee.

In a statement Andersen said: "I have introduced a bill which fixes a minimum price on certain basic agricultural products. If its provisions are properly administered by the secretary of agriculture, it will not take long before prosperity is again restored in this country."

"I have established the following minimum prices: Wheat at 25 cents per bushel; cotton at 15 cents per pound; corn at 75 cents per bushel; rice at 70 cents per bushel; barley at 65 cents per bushel; hogs and cattle 10 cents per pound, and butter at 32 cents per pound."

"Coward" Epithet Brings Near Fight in Legislature

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 25.—(AP)—The sergeant-at-arms was called on by Representative Cooke, of Horry county, said any member of the house who voted for the conference report on the appropriation bill "is a coward."

When Cooke made the statement, R. E. Broome, Richland, went up to Cooke and said, "I'm going to vote for this bill and don't you call me a coward."

Randolph Lee, Dorchester, raised a point of order against Cooke. Meanwhile, Cooke was speaking heatedly and Speaker Hamblin ordered the sergeant to "stop him."

Under the rules, Cooke was directed to his seat while the point of order was considered. He later retracted his statement.

GEORGIANS OPPOSE BEER TAX PROPOSAL

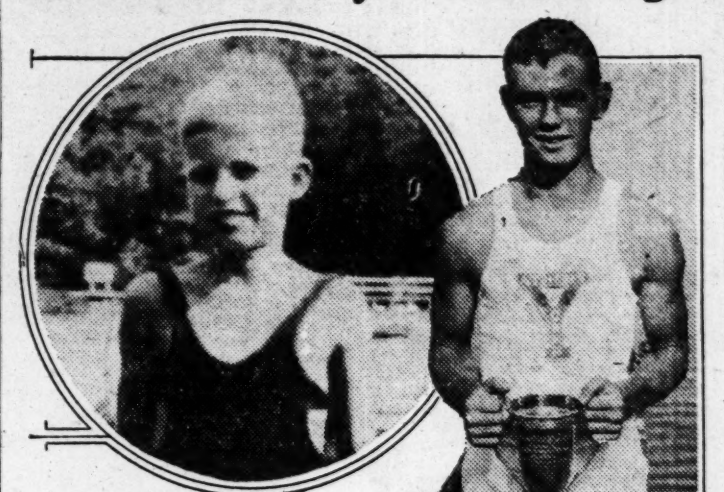

Crisp Scores Amendment for Levy on 2.75 Per Cent Brew.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The Georgia delegation in the house again came to the support of the "dry" cause today when they voted as a unit to reject the Cullen amendment to the revenue bill, which would place a tax of $7 on every barrel of 2.75 per cent beer manufactured in the country.

Representative Charles R. Crisp, Georgia, acting chairman of the ways and means committee, spoke in opposition to the amendment, declaring he could not support an excise tax that was clearly in violation of the eighteenth amendment to the constitution. "I hope this amendment will not be adopted," said Representative Crisp. "My committee could not see its way clear to tax something which violates the constitution, and I shall oppose it on the floor of this house just as I opposed it in committee. I realize the ways and means committee recommended a tax placed on work and malt but both these articles are legal. But even though they are legal, I did not even support a tax on them in committee."

The Cullen amendment lost by a vote of 132 to 216 after Judge Crisp and Representative Cullen had led as tellers of the house.

Did you know that for a Georgian to marry his mother-in-law carries a sentence of three years in the penitentiary? That it is against the law for a minister to preach on Sunday? That every person cooling in the lakes of Piedmont and Grant park on Sundays is liable to a term in the chain gang? Mr. McKoy in commenting on a recent article in a national magazine as to HOW LONG WASHINGTON WOULD STAY OUT OF PRISON IF HE LIVED NOW, says "Poor George would probably never get out of prison, if all Georgia's freak laws were enforced." 33 States Voting Nearly 3 to 1 For Repeal in Digest's Poll; Georgia Drys Gain Slightly

Thirty-three states are voting nearly 3 to 1 wet as over three million ballots from all 48 states are tabulated in The Literary Digest's nationwide prohibition poll, as announced in today's issue of the magazine.

The 33 states represented in this wet group have a combined population of over 86,000,000 people, as enumerated in the latest census figures.

Eight of these states register a vote of more than 4 to 1 for repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

3,040,036 votes are tallied this week in the "straw" referendum of which 763,175, or 25.1 per cent, are dry and 2,276,861, or 74.9 per cent, are wet.

The dry vote scores a fifth consecutive gain this week rising from 15.85 per cent of the total vote of the first week's returns to 25.10 per cent in the current sixth tabulation.

Kansas is still the only state voting bone dry, but North Carolina is within a fraction of one per cent of registering a vote for continuance of the eighteenth amendment.

Arkansas, Oklahoma and Tennessee are voting over 45 per cent dry.

Initial returns are reported in the current tabulation from Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico and Utah. The dryest of these is Idaho, home state of Senator Borah with a vote of 32.16 per cent for continuance.

The first returns from Nevada of 86.82 per cent for repeal make it the wettest state to date, gaining first place from New York in the anti-prohibition column.

The District of Columbia is voting 22.09 per cent for repeal of the prohibition amendment.

Doctor William Seaver Woods, editor-in-chief of the magazine, states that he anticipates nearly two million more returns in the poll judging from present incoming ballots.

In a symposium upon the recent wet-dry test vote in the house of representatives, The Literary Digest notes that public opinion as reflected by its prohibition poll is decidedly wetter than public opinion as represented by the congressmen who voted on the Beck-Linthicum resolution.

"Six debutant states now make their bow," The Literary Digest states in its issue today. "Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico and Utah."

"Not one of them could truthfully sing 'How Dry I Am'."

"Appropriately enough, the nearest approach to dryness among them is found in the returns from Senator Borah's home state. They're very small returns so far, but the percentage in favor of continuance of the eighteenth amendment is 32.16."

"The dry percentages of the other debutant states are: Arizona, 23.90; Montana, 20.41; Nevada, 13.18; New Mexico, 28; Utah, 30.96."

"But here is some dry encouragement. North Carolina is rapidly overhauling Kansas and seems to be getting ready to jump over the 50 per cent fence into dry territory."

"All along she has hovered near the border-line, but on the wet side. Last week her dry percentage was 48.32. This week it is 49.52. Watch that lady jump!"

"Only four other states show up with less than 60 per cent humidity. They are Alabama, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Tennessee."

"Practical men of public affairs do not question the information furnished by The Literary Digest's polls. They've known them too long and seen them proved to the hilt."

"They know too, that The Digest is just as impartial toward prohibition as toward the tariff, the dolo, war debts, the League of Nations, or any other public question that might reach an acute stage and become a judicious subject for a national straw vote."

The sixth report in the 1930 Literary Digest prohibition poll, asking three questions instead of two, showed a total tabulation of 3,175,972 of which 915,681, or about 28 per cent, were for enforcement; 951,475, or nearly 30 per cent, for modification; and 1,308,816, or nearly 41 per cent, were for repeal.

In The Literary Digest's prohibition poll in 1922, the sixth week's tabulation showed a total of 708,805 ballots returned of which 271,954 were for strict enforcement; 290,172 for modification and 146,679 for repeal.

LEVINE'S BROKEN LEG KEEPS HIM FROM TRIAL

NEW YORK, March 25.—(AP)—Charles A. Levine, first trans-Atlantic airplane passenger, failed to appear today for his trial on charges of grand larceny, forgery and receiving stolen property. His bail of $10,000 was ordered forfeited.

Execution of the bail forfeiture, however, was postponed until April 5 after the court was shown a physician's affidavit setting forth that Levine was suffering from a broken leg and could not be moved.

HENRY G. DICKEY, 64, DIES IN COLLEGE PARK

Well-Known Building Contractor Succumbs to Illness of Several Months.

Henry G. Dickey, widely known building contractor, died at 10 o'clock Friday morning at his home, 322 East Hawthorne avenue, College Park. He had been ill for several months, and was 64 years old.

Final rites will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the First Baptist church, of College Park. The Rev. W. M. Sentell and the Rev. R. C. Cleckler will officiate, and burial will be in the College Park cemetery.

Mr. Dickey was a native of Mineral Bluff, and formerly lived in Atlanta before moving to College Park. He was a member of the First Baptist church and was prominent in its affairs. For many years he had been active in civic affairs of College Park.

Surviving are his wife, a son, Joseph Dickey; a daughter, Miss Mary Dickey, all of College Park; and three brothers and three sisters. A. C. Hemperley & Sons in charge.

102 MORE GIVEN JOBS IN LEGION DRIVE HERE

One hundred and two more jobs for unemployed men and women were reported Friday by canvassers in the united action campaign for employment, bringing Atlanta's total to 2,133 since the drive began in this city.

Of the new jobs obtained Friday, 37 were permanent and 65 were temporary business jobs, it was reported by Trammell Scott, commander of the Atlanta post of the American Legion. The Legion is co-operating with other agencies in a war against unemployment.

Officials in charge of the local campaign announced Friday that the Rogers stores had re-employed a number of men, and that indications are that other organizations will soon put to work men who have been laid off, or add to their pay rolls. Adjutant William A. Sirmon, of the Georgia department of the Legion, said that the national total already has passed the 300,000 mark.

"HOARDER" LOSES $1,000 IN BILLS ON WAY TO BANK

Friday was an unlucky day for Cecil Ellington, negro storekeeper, of 1530 Johnson road. Ellington, who long has entertained a mistrust for banks and has safely kept something in excess of $2,000 hidden about his premises, started for town with his hoarded wealth secured in a home-made money belt, made largely of canvas and safety pins. He stopped by the Toledo Scale Company, 336 Marietta street, to purchase some necessary equipment for his store.

As Ellington got out of his car at the curb—but unknown to him at the time—almost $1,000 in greenbacks slipped from the money bag about his waist and rolled into the gutter. It was after he had appeared at a downtown bank to make his gesture of faith by depositing his wealth that he made the discovery.

He frantically appealed to Joe Reed, manager of the Toledo Scale Company for assistance. Mr. Reed, who recalled seeing something akin to a parade throng outside his office shortly before, began a search of the neighborhood. As a result about $200 was recovered. But there still is more than $700 missing, and Mr. Reed Friday appealed to the conscience of those lucky finders to return Cecil Ellington's hard-earned money.

ST. LOUIS, March 25.—(UP)—Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink was resting easily tonight. The beloved contralto, internationally famous, was suffering from an attack of grippe and laryngitis. Her 70 years added to fears of her physician that pneumonia might develop. But Dr. George T. Hohn reported that she was cheerful and that she was combating the illness as best she could.

Yehudi Menuhin, the boy violinist, will arrive at the Peachtree station at 9 o'clock this morning and spend several days seeing Atlanta before his recital at the auditorium on Monday night.

With the boy, who is now 15, will be his father, Moshe Menuhin, and his accompanist, Artur Balsam, himself a concert pianist.

Every indication points toward a record-breaking audience to greet the young genius, who has played in most of the larger cities of Europe and America. Orders for seats from out-of-town music lovers have poured in at the ticket booth in the Davison-Paxon store for several days.

Five hundred seats in the dress circle have been provided for children under 15 at a special price of 50 cents each, it is announced by the All-Star Concert series, at the request of teachers who have urged their pupils to attend the recital.

EAST POINT CHILD, 9, INJURED BY AUTO

Doctors Friday night were fighting for the life of James Norton, nine-year-old son of Mrs. Mina Norton, of 213 Center street, East Point, who was struck down by an automobile driven by a friend of the family early Friday morning and seriously injured. He was rushed to Grady hospital where doctors labored to save his life.

The child was on his way to a grocery store for breakfast food when the car driven by J. M. Hudson, 212 Center street, struck him. The driver said the boy was standing in the center of the street and that despite his efforts to swerve and avoid him, a fender and bumper buried the victim to the pavement. The car careened into a telephone pole and was wrecked.

Injuries to the boy include a mangled right arm, a broken jaw, fractures of all the ribs on the right side, internal injuries and a fractured skull.

Mrs. Norton, mother of the boy, is a widow.

TWO NEGROES CONFESS 108 PHONE ROBBERIES

Two negroes, who were arrested last Tuesday morning at a filling station at Piedmont avenue and Houston street, Friday afternoon confessed to the robbery of 108 telephones in pay stations in various parts of the city, according to detectives.

The negroes, Rennie Jackson and Willie Davis, each 20 years old, are said to have admitted they have been "nickel-snatching" the telephone coin boxes over a period of several months. Officers said they believe many other cases of minor pilfering will be traced to the two suspects.

"I agree with my Husband...."

● "He says Chesterfields are milder... and he's right! They're so mild I can smoke as many as I like without bothering to keep track.

"And I find I never get tired of the taste. Probably that's because they're not really what you would call sweet... Chesterfields are just natural flavored... if you know what I mean.

"And have you ever noticed the paper?... Well, neither have I! "That's certainly a compliment... to be able to say you can't taste or smell the cigarette paper.

"I think that's about as good a test for purity as anyone could possibly ask for. Chesterfields satisfy... that's one thing my husband and I agree on!"

FRIENDLY COUNSEL BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

"What are you afraid of?" asks one woman of a group. "Nothing," replies the brave one. "Everything," replies the timid one. "Old age," replies the fair one. "Women," replies the cynic. The future, replies the secure one. All afraid. Even the brave who claim to go unafraid are secretly fearful. Not long ago in crossing the Atlantic on one of the world's biggest boats there traveled a woman, talkative, full of assurance which she eagerly voiced, student of a modern cult which she tried to ram down every listener's throat. Everything that life sent her was a gift especially designed for her pleasure. Everything that life took away from her was taken away from her with the intent to make her strong and brave and self-sufficient—even the loss of her husband was regarded in that light. One day a storm arose and the motors of the ship were simultaneously stilled. She became highly hysterical, and it took the combined effort of her daughter and a friend to quiet her. She was consumed with fright. Her false front fell away from her like a white glow from the head by a wind.

There are some salutary influences of fear. But most of us have discovered, too, that "fear hath torment." It torments when it is allowed to stay in one place. It must be kept moving else it takes possession of the mind and shuts out every other emotion that seeks entry. I doubt if the psychologists would agree that fear comes into the life with love. But they will have to agree that only love can put it into its proper place. It comes into the life with hate, too, and it takes love to eject them both. It comes into the life with death, the death of a loved one, and only faith can fence with it.

A charming old lady of some 80 years went to a party and met a friend of long standing. When she was congratulated on her appearance, her bright eyes, and her evident interest in people, and events about her, she replied rather humorously, yet sadly, "Don't tell me I look well, I am afraid I am going to live too long, afraid that my body is going to outlive my mind." "No," answered the friend, "your very fear is a sign of a healthy brain and as long as you retain the fear, it is your guarantee that you are in possession of your mental powers. If and when you lose the fear you won't care." She was reassured and comforted.

Keep your fears moving, friends, as the policemen keep people in the crowd moving. Else they will clot like human beings in a mob, and obstruct the traffic of your life.

Faced singly, and one by one, they are like friends and acquaintances passed on the street, good for your soul and stimulating to your ambition.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

WAR DEBT PROGRESS IS SEEN BY TARDIEU

Premier Hopeful of Early Settlement Between France, England.

PARIS, March 25.—(UP)—Premier Andre Tardieu announced progress today in rapprochement of the French and British viewpoints on reparations, war debts and European economic questions which is scheduled to lead to a four-power conference, possibly at Geneva after April 11.

The premier said he was hopeful that early summer would witness settlement of the most difficult and critical problems facing the European nations.

Later he promised the senate that definite news of an accord between France and Britain on war debts would be received soon.

Tardieu also took advantage of the foreign affairs budget debate in the senate, where he received a favorable vote, to declare that the League of Nations exposed unexpected weakness in handling the Manchurian warfare.

"The weakness of the League must be repaired," he premier said. "It is necessary and urgent that it be reinforced."

"This weakness justifies the French disarmament thesis." The French have demanded guarantees of security prior to disarmament.

In reference to the accord with England, which has been an outstanding obstacle in the path of a reparations agreement for the last three months, Tardieu said that an exchange of letters with Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald, of Britain, is resulting in reconciliation of viewpoints on war debts and the French proposal for a Danube economic union to relieve the present central European crisis.

Culbertson on Contract

Deception

BY ELY CULBERTSON.
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

Wellington is reputed to have said that the art of war is "in knowing what the enemy was doing over the hill." The art of strategy in Contract bidding is comparable to strategy in warfare. It is not only important to know what your adversary is doing, but you would reach the best possible result if it is important to conceal from him the disposition of your forces as well as their strength.

The art of deception as applied to Contract bidding was rather interestingly, if unspectacularly, demonstrated in a recent Duplicate game at the Deschamps Club in New York on the hand shown below:

North—Dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.
A Q 10
K 8 7
J 9 8 3 2
K Q 10 9

The Bidding:

(Figures after bids in table refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

North	East	South	West
1♠ (1) Pass	3♠ (2) Pass
3♠ (3) Pass	6♥ (4) DbL (5)
7♣ (6) DbL (7) Redbl. (8) Pass
Pass	Pass

1—The holder of the North hand was a firm believer in the Approach principle. Most players would be afraid to make a bid of one diamond with his holding and risk a pass by partner.

2—A correct Forcing Takeout. Although the hand contains only 2-1-2 honor-tricks, it is rich in playing-tricks and can support diamonds if the suit is rebid or hearts if partner holds a semi-two-suiter.

3—Laying a trap for the opponents at the risk of momentarily deceiving partner. A wholly unsound bid and a dangerous one, but the Forcing Takeout by South in clubs, for which North has adequate support, causes him to believe that he can escape from his bluff bid without loss.

4—A surprise for North. South takes the heart bid seriously.

5—West falls into the trap.

6—North is forced to bid either seven in a suit or six notrumps. Uncertain as to the length of the club suit, he feels that it is safer to play the hand in seven diamonds than in seven clubs. He intends to bid seven notrump if partner returns to seven hearts.

7—East, influenced by his partner's Double of six hearts, believes he will conceal his partner's strength by doubling seven diamonds.

8—South now grasps that there is something wrong with the heart bid and as his partner has rebid diamonds decides not to take him back to that suit, but elects to play the contract redoubled, reasoning that if his partner holds any spades the hand will be ruffed with his diamonds, while West may hold five hearts, making a Grand Slam in hearts impossible.

The result, of course, is apparent. The hand produces a Grand Slam and through the deceptive bidding of North it was played at its redoubled value. I do not recommend North's strategy as it is entirely too dangerous and too difficult for even an understanding partner to decode. There is not always the safe refuge of a Grand Slam bid in notrump.

TODAY'S POINTER.

While the art of successful bidding is based on giving partner enough information to encourage him to continue the bidding and to deceive opponents as much as possible as to distribution and honor strength, the bidding of suits not bid by opponents to show void is ordinarily a dangerous and losing practice. Its success in this instance was due to the factors of favorable distribution and overwhelming honor strength.

WHITEFOOT IS RELIEVED.

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

"Tis not in body but in mind
We suffer most you'll always find."
—Whitefoot the Wood Mouse.

Whitefoot the Wood Mouse was worried. He was very much worried. Never in all his life had he been more worried. It wasn't in regard to himself he was worrying. He never worried about himself much, never for more than a few minutes at a time when he happened to be in a very tight place. He had been in so many of these tight places and had escaped so many times that danger was no longer a cause for real worry. It was over little Mrs. Whitefoot and the babies that he was worrying. They had disappeared. Yes, sir, they had disappeared. And he hadn't the least idea what had become of them. Naturally he feared the worst. He feared that something dreadful had happened to them.

Once again he went all over that pile of wood and the result was the same. That hollow stick was not there. Then he hunted all around on the ground. There was no hollow stick and no trace of Mrs. Whitefoot or the babies. Once he thought of looking in the sugar house, but noises within frightened him. Then Hooty the Owl hooted his fierce hunting call from the top of a tree not far away, and Whitefoot knew that it wouldn't do at all for him to be running about there in the open. That fierce call made little chills of fear run all over him and he ran to hide in the safety of his hollow stump.

Twice that night he started back, but each time was forced to seek his hollow stump again. Once the next day he started for the sugar house, but Whitefoot is afraid in the bright light of day and his courage was not equal to the long journey, for that stump was some distance from the sugar house. So he remained in his snug home and worried. He just knew that something dreadful had happened to Mrs. Whitefoot and the babies and that he never would see them again. He tried not to think of them and the more he tried not to the more he did think of them.

So the next night he was back at that woodpile. It was smaller than ever. Presently the door of the sugar house opened and Farmer Brown's Boy came out. He got a big armful of wood and carried it into the house. Could it be that he had taken that hollow stick with Mrs. Whitefoot and the babies? Could it be? It seemed to him that Mrs. Whitefoot must have escaped. But if so, where had she gone? Perhaps she had gone back to the place where they had lived before making their home in the woodpile. He hurried there, but could find no trace of her.

A long time later he went back to that woodpile. He couldn't keep away from there. Suddenly, as he sat on top of it, he heard a sound that made his heart leap and a great load was swept from his mind. It was a faint, very soft drumming. Only Mrs. Whitefoot drummed like that!

PARENTS ARE ACCUSED IN DAUGHTER'S DEATH
ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 25.—(AP)—Morris Brooks and his wife were ordered held in $1,000 bond today by a coroner's jury which found that their "neglect and cruelty" caused the death of Brooks' 3-year-old daughter, Willie Mae.

Willie Mae's mother, now Mrs. Maudie Mashburn, who was divorced from Brooks, sobbed in the arms of spectators as she heard witnesses tell of the child's stepmother beating her severely a few minutes before she died Wednesday.

Battered Steamer
Makes Port Safely
GALVESTON, Texas, March 25.—(AP)—The Panaman steamer "Florida" reached port here today in a distressed condition after being buffeted by a gale and high seas in the Gulf.

The ship was short of provisions and her supply of fuel was exhausted. Much of her woodwork had been used for fuel in the struggle to reach port.

The "Florida" was en route from Tuxpan, Mexico, to Tampa, Fla., with a cargo of bananas when the gale struck. Captain L. F. Upson said none of the crew was injured.

ANTI-CHURCH CAMPAIGN IS LAUNCHED IN CHILE
SANTIAGO, Chile, March 25.—(AP)—The Chilean Anti-Clerical Society opened a campaign against the church tonight with demonstrations which attracted large crowds to the Boulevard Alameda, Santiago's main street, but police watched carefully and there were no disorders.

Anti-church agitation was something new in Chile, particularly during such religious periods as Easter week. The movement was attributed in some quarters to communists.

New Stage, Screen Programs At Atlanta Theaters Today

CHEVALIER PRODUCTION FOR PARAMOUNT REOPENING
Smooth as satin! Bright-polished and fast-moving as a new car! Exciting as a stolen kiss! That's the new Chevalier triumph, "One Hour With You," a Paramount picture which comes to the reopened Paramount today.

As a fashionable doctor whose women patients find his prescriptions easy to take, Maurice Chevalier has a role full of opportunities for his special brand of foolery. However—and this is an original touch—the doctor is actually in love with his wife, Colette (played by Jeanette MacDonald) and, though duty requires him to call on other ladies, hold their hands—that is, feel their pulses—and listen to the excited fluttering of their hearts, he struggles manfully to be true to Colette. If only Mitzi (Genevieve) had played fair—but when did a woman as pretty as Mitzi ever play fair?

"One Hour With You" also provides legitimate occasion for the introduction of new Chevalier songs; and it's certain that several of them, "What Would You Do?" "Three Times a Day" and "Oh, That Mitzi!" with the duet, "What a Little Thing Like a Wedding Ring Can Do," which is sung by Chevalier and Miss MacDonald, will be played and sung for more than the "one hour" of the title. A special musical score for "One Hour With You" was written by Oscar Straus—the same Straus who wrote "The Chocolate Soldier."

The Paramount presents in addition to this wonderful picture an all-headline vaudeville bill. This stage show features Kramer and Boyle, Jack Hedley Trio, The Rimes orchestra, and Dick Henderson.

The new and larger Paramount concert orchestra, under the masterful direction of Adolph Kornsman, will offer as its first overture at the Paramount, the "American Fantasy." The orchestra will be augmented by an organ.

FOX HAS JUNGLE THRILLS IN GREAT PICTURE, "TARZAN"

Few pictures of recent months have contained the wide appeal that is to be found in "Tarzan," the picture made of Edgar Rice Burroughs' famous novel and newspaper strip character, which opens a week's run at the Fox theater today.

The only other picture with which it can be compared is "Trader Horn," and critics are unanimous in branding this as even better than its predecessor. It contains jungle scenes and stunts that are almost unbelievable, including terrific fights between Tarzan and lions and leopards, a charge of a great elephant herd, magnificent swimming and tremendous shots of African wild life. There is also a clever love story and a plot that leads up to a climax that, for thrills, can only be described as stupendous.

Johnny Weissmuller, the champion swimmer, plays the title role and immediately jumps into the ranks of stardom. Others in the cast are Maureen O'Sullivan and C. Douglas Gordon.

The Fox has another unusual attraction this week in the presence on the stage of Ruth Roland. Miss Roland used, in the days of silent pictures, to thrill us all with her expertness as a star of film serials. Today she is the star of the F. & M. "Cozy Corner" idea and is winning countless new admirers by her delightful personality.

Enrico Leide and the Fox concert orchestra, Al Evans at the organ and a fine selection of short screen subjects complete the bill.

JAMES CAGNEY IS STAR OF "TAXI" AT GEORGIA

James Cagney, after a succession of forceful characterizations in Warner Brothers' "Sinners Holiday," "Doorway to Hell," "Smart Money," "The Public Enemy" and many other splendid screen hits, has been elevated from the rank of featured player and will be seen as a full-fledged star in "Taxi," which opens a three-day engagement at the Georgia today.

With the showing of "Taxi," the Georgia will enter a new policy of a straight picture program at reduced admission prices. The former vaudeville policy of the theater will be moved to the Paramount, which opens today. In addition to presenting high-class, first-run productions under the new policy, the theater will also surround each and every program with entertaining short subjects.

"Taxi" presents the vigorous James Cagney in the character of Matt Nolan, a tax driver who makes it his business to get even with his rivals. The role offers Cagney a chance to display his ability in the interpretation of comedy as well as drama. Playing opposite Cagney will be the petite little star, Loretta Young.

"PENROD AND SAM" OPENS
RUN AT RIALTO TODAY

"Penrod and Sam," a splendid piece of talking screen entertainment made from the world-famous story by Booth Tarkington, opens a week's engagement at the Rialto theater today.

With Leon Janney, Junior Coghlan, Dorothy Paterson and Matt Moore heading a splendid cast, the picture is undoubtedly one of the finest productions of recent Hollywood history.

In addition to this exceptional feature the Rialto program includes more of those unusual short screen subjects which have made this theater notable among discerning amusement seekers.

G. O. P. TO SELECT DELEGATES TODAY

passed on by the credentials committee, however, it was said.

The black-and-tan delegation from Richmond county, five negroes and four whites, led by C. S. Wigfall, county chairman, was seated in preference to the lily white delegation of nine persons led by Postmaster E. R. Johnson.

The black-and-tans were seated in contests from Spalding, Taliaferro and Henry counties while lily-white delegations from Tattnall, Bryan, Sumter and Stewart counties were seated in preference to black and tans.

Oglethorpe, Walton, Liberty, McIntosh, Webster and several other county contests were referred to the credentials committee.

A temporary roll for the state convention was established at Friday's meeting of the state committee, and contests in 14 counties were decided. Several contests between delegates to the state meeting were left for the convention to pass on today, Rose said.

Rose announced that J. W. Arnold, of Athens, national committeeman from Georgia, was nominated as temporary chairman of the convention, and Wilson Williams, present secretary, as temporary secretary.

A clear majority of the accredited delegates to today's convention are white, it was said. Although several of the contests heard Friday were between negroes and whites, every case was heard on its merits and decided on the basis of the majority of the republican votes in the county involved, Rose said.

Rose said that the committee did not go into all of the details of the various contests, but that the details will be left to the credentials committee which will be appointed today for the temporary officers are elected.

The credentials committee will hear the same cases heard Friday by the state central committee and will set up the permanent roll. Rose said that there will be 201 delegates and 261 alternates at the convention, the courtroom of Judge Jesse M. Wood, where the republican meetings usually are held, will be too small.

District conventions of the republicans will be held within the next two weeks, he said.

The closing time for withdrawals of delegate candidates to the republican and democratic conventions found both the Smith and Roosevelt forces adamant in their refusal to reach a compromise on one democratic slate.

The Roosevelt forces retained a complete slate, although there were several last-minute withdrawals and substitutions. The Smith slate was complete except for the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of Mrs. Helen I. McGillicuddy, of Boston, a candidate for delegate-at-large.

ROOSEVELT MAY GAIN
20 VOTES IN KANSAS

TOPEKA, March 25.—(AP)—Home after a visit with Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, Guy T. Helvering, democratic state chairman, expressed confidence today Kansas' 20 votes in the party's national convention would go to the New York executive.

Asked if he believed the Kansas delegation would vote for Roosevelt on the first ballot, Helvering replied: "Yes, sir, and on the last one, too."

MASSACHUSETTS SHARPLY DIVIDED IN CAMPAIGN

BOSTON, March 25.—(AP)—Massachusetts democrats, divided in their allegiance to Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt and Alfred E. Smith, as potential nominees for the presidency, tonight appeared destined to engage in a bitter fight for delegates to the national convention in Chicago next June.

The closing time for withdrawals of delegate candidates to the republican and democratic conventions found both the Smith and Roosevelt forces adamant in their refusal to reach a compromise on one democratic slate.

The Roosevelt forces retained a complete slate, although there were several last-minute withdrawals and substitutions. The Smith slate was complete except for the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of Mrs. Helen I. McGillicuddy, of Boston, a candidate for delegate-at-large.

ROOSEVELT MAY GAIN

TOPEKA, March 25.—(AP)—Home after a visit with Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, Guy T. Helvering, democratic state chairman, expressed confidence today Kansas' 20 votes in the party's national convention would go to the New York executive.

Asked if he believed the Kansas delegation would vote for Roosevelt on the first ballot, Helvering replied: "Yes, sir, and on the last one, too."

CONTINENTAL HOTEL PLEASES AT CAPITOL

For a kaleidoscopic view of life in a luxury hotel by all means see "Hotel Continental" now showing at the Capitol theater. The cast, including Peggy Shannon, Theodore von Eltz, J. Farrell McDonald and Henry B. Walthall, is capable but the insight on the varied lives of the guests of a famous hotel that on the morrow will be torn down, makes the picture.

One sees the aged couple who return to the hotel on its last night to live their dream of long ago; the crowded lobby filled with pleasure seekers; the snooping house detective, who couldn't find his shadow; the happy drunk who wanders from room to room seeking a place to light; ladies who live to love and those who love to live; gangsters, rammers and flounders; the dance-filled floor and the wall of the saxophone; and throughout a theme of a story that will hold your interest.

The picture no doubt is a takeoff on the "Grand Hotel" that ran for so long on Broadway. However, such does not detract from the enjoyment of "Hotel Continental." The program is completed by the usual short subjects. And a word for "Mickey Mouse," he is in fine fettle in an animated comedy. —R. M. BRUMBY.

Jacket Squad Shows Much Improvement in Stiff Scrimmage

CRACKERS SUFFER FIRST DEFEAT OF SEASON, 5-4

JACKET SQUAD LOOKS BETTER IN SCRIMMAGE

Phillips and Williams, Freshmen Players, Attract Attention.

By Ralph McGill.

Opponents of the new football rules would have enjoyed the Georgia Tech scrimmage Friday afternoon. Wink Davis, back, got away for a run of 50 yards and fell flat in a clear field. It was possible for him to have got up and gone on. As it was the new rules made the back automatically dead. This happens only once in a great while. But happen it did Friday in the last scrimmage of the week. The Jackets, according to Coach W. A. Alexander, who reported the scrimmage, showed some improvement. The varsity won by three touchdowns in a scrimmage which was played up considerably in the second half of the "game."

PEWEE CHEERS.

"Pewee" Williams, who isn't as small as his name would indicate, cheered the hearts of the line coaches somewhat by making a much-improved showing at tackle. The freshman, who will be a sophomore next fall, played good ball defensively and offensively. Jack Phillips, the freshman fullback, who will also be on the varsity squad next fall, showed up well. He seems to have a knack for tackling and diagnosing plays.

Both Williams and Phillips, if they keep up their diligent work, have every qualification necessary to make football players in time. The same applies to other players who have also shown considerable improvement.

BLOCKING.

Coach Alexander was not so sure about the blocking. Most of the work this spring has been placed on blocking. There was some improvement shown Friday. "I don't know whether it was the opposition which made it show improvement or whether it is actually improved," he said.

The Jackets, who will not work today, go back to work Monday in preparation for their movie test before the cameras of Grantland Rice's Sportlight movie company.

Week after next will find the Jackets engaged in practice on a field day in which the best punter, passer, tackler, pass receiver, and so on will be determined. The winners will get medals. The squad is in good shape with the exception of Tom Cain, tackle, who has been out with a severe cold. Mike Chambers has the injury list down to nothing.

LOUISA ROBERT FLEES TO MEET AT INDIANAPOLIS

Leaves Here With Mother for National Junior A. A. U. Event.

By Jack Troy.

The hardest test of her short competitive career faces Miss Louisa Robert, Atlanta's leading amateur girl swimmer and the best in the south in the 100-yard freestyle, as she wings northward through the clouds to Indianapolis, Ind., where she will compete tonight in the National Junior A. A. U. meet.

Miss Robert, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. W. (Chip) Robert, left Candler field by plane at 2:30 Friday afternoon for Indianapolis. After the Indianapolis meet, Miss Robert will continue intensive training for the Olympic tryouts in New York to be held in May. The latter event is the main objective. For a good showing in New York will qualify Atlanta's brilliant 17-year-old swimmer, who has engaged in only two competitive meets, for Olympic competition.

FACES BEST.

At Indianapolis tonight Miss Robert will be pitted against the nation's best junior swimmers. She is to enter Sunday's event—the 100-yard freestyle, in which she is not so proficient as the other, tends to slow her up.

Two years of steady training have made Miss Robert expert in the backstroke. She has developed strong, powerful legs and finely muscled shoulders. They are, of course, the important factors in that style of swimming.

It was no longer than two years ago that Miss Robert took to swimming seriously. Up to that time she had engaged in the sport only as a recreation.

At Sea Island Beach last summer, however, Mrs. Gladys Lindsay, wife of the director of the pool there, who formerly was a champion backstroke swimmer, gave Miss Robert her first lessons. And the comely Atlanta swimmer has made marvelous development since.

WIMS EARLY.

Ray Eaton, southern representative of the Red Cross, has been training Miss Robert at the Athletic Club pool here in his spare time. At other times Eaton leaves instructions with Mrs. Robert, who accompanies her daughter on her daily—except Tuesday—trips to the pool.

When the ducks and chickens are still more or less undecided about the day's plans, and mortals are struggling of the clinging arms of Mother, Miss Robert is to be seen in the A. C. pool, clearing the blue waters in that 440-yard "warm-up," that fast 100 and practicing starts and turns on the 220 and 440.

Tonight's event in Indiana is only Miss Robert's third in competition. She won the backstroke and lowered the district record in the district championships at Washington, D. C., last week, and finished second in the free-style. Last summer she won the honor in the city meet held at the Venetian Club here.

There are few swimmers—girl or men—who can point to meteoric development in so short a time.

BASE RUNNERS.

Sitting in the stands Friday afternoon peering at the Crackers playing Toronto, one was struck by the hustle of the Crackers on bases.

Last year's Atlanta ball club was the slowest ball club in history. It resembled a slow-motion movie on bases. This year's outfit seems to be traveling faster in comparison. They may be actually fast.

And Hal Bejin, at first base, handles himself like his namesake, Hal Chase, when it comes to fielding the baseball. He gives the defense the advantage of that split second which means so many put-outs with his stretch for the baseball. If he can hit the .270 he did in the Middle Atlantic league he can play for me.

If Bejin can hit, and he might if someone would give the boy some confidence, the infield would appear to be just about fixed.

The Crackers may fool the entire league. It is possible, with a few breaks, that the club may click. Much stranger things have happened. Even William Daley, the trainer, is able to bend his back forward one and one-quarter inches now. After his auto accident he was bent backwards one and one-half feet.

WARMING UP ARMS.

And b'gosh if the Crackers haven't got one of those web belts and motors, such as fat people have and use in an effort to reduce, in their undressing quarters.

I suspected that Bill Daly might be using it, trying to get down to a 40-inch belt line. But it wasn't for that.

No, sir. The pitchers come in and hook that belt about the pitching arm. And as the motor makes it shimmy, the arm muscles shimmy. And there is an arm warmed up.

Red Torkelson used to strike a match under his arm when told to warm up.

That was more picturesque, but the belt is perhaps better.

Grace Meets Peachtree For Title

League of the Sunday School Athletic Association will be decided at 8:30 o'clock tonight on the Jewish Progressive Club court when the Grace Methodist, winners of the first half, and Peachtree Christian, winners of the second half title, meet.

A decision to play on the Progressive club court was reached after both teams had failed to agree on any other court. Neither team has played on the South River street court this season and R. L. Doyle has been secured as the referee.

It should be a fitting climax to one of the most successful seasons in the history of the league. Three teams were tied for the lead in the second half but in the playoff Peachtree Christian won out.

MIAMI RACERS ARE SUSPENDED

Charged With Luring British Champ Over Line Too Soon.

MIAMI, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—Nine outboard motor boat racers who competed for the Colonel E. H. Green trophy in the Biscayne Bay regatta here last week-end were suspended today by the American Power Boat Association pending investigation of charges that they purposely lured Charles H. Harrison, English driver, across the starting line ahead of the signal in the third and final heat of the two-day competition.

The drivers are William Crawford Jr., of New York, winner of the trophy; Travis Chestnut, of Jacksonville; George Martin, of South Bend, Ind.; Guy P. Ellsworth, of Durham, N. C.; Clarence Collins, of Troy, N. Y.; Tommy Esdick, of Waukegan; H. H. Lilly, of Kansas City; Horace Tennes, of Chicago, and Cal Leith, of Cullman, Ala.

The suspensions were announced by George H. Townsend, president of the American Power Boat Association, and Charles F. Chapman, chairman of the National Outboard Racing Association. They were charged with luring Harrison, with five other drivers, was disqualified for beating the starters' gun. The others were charged with luring Harrison, with five other drivers, was disqualified for beating the starters' gun. The others were charged with luring Harrison, with five other drivers, was disqualified for beating the starters' gun.

Townsend and Chapman said a hearing on the charges would be held in New York next week. No definite date was set. The racers will be asked to appear personally, but those unable to do so will testify by deposition.

Chapman said one of the drivers whom he would not name told him the nine Americans purposely beat the gun to draw Harrison across the line and into disqualification. He said the Englishman was leading on points for the trophy when the final heat started.

Crawford, a student at the University of Miami, said he was not a party to any conspiracy against Harrison, and said he believed it would be impossible to get nine racers to line up and to disqualify. He was behind the pack at the start, he said, because of motor trouble.

Everett Goes Into Finals Of Tourney

Whatley, Benning, Scores Two Knockouts; Fryer Wins His Bout.

By Roy White.

Championships in eight classes will be determined tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the city auditorium in the close of the third annual Southeastern Amateur Athletic Union tournament. The event is being sponsored by the 122nd Infantry of the Georgia National Guard and has been the most successful of the past three years.

The semi-finals Friday night there were some unusually good fights. The way through and the bouts were far superior to those of last year.

FOUR KAYOES.

There were four knockouts on the Friday card, with Roy Whatley, of Fort Benning middleweight, securing two of them, one in the quarter final and another in the semi-final.

Earl Everett, the flashy Memphis flyweight, continued his winning streak with a victory over Don Leitch, of Charleston, S. C. Whatley was one of the best fighters on the card. Another good fight was between Quint Adams, Tech, and K. M. Arthur, of Macon. Both fighters were throwing rights and lefts with reckless abandon in the first round. In the second, Adams timed his blows and sent Arthur reeling to the canvas for the count with a right to the jaw.

Two 1931 champions will defend their crowns in the ring tonight. Ernest Chambliss, Memphis bantamweight, fights Dewey Cannon, of Mobile, in the light flyweight class. He defends his title against Jack Willis, G. M. A., in the lightweight class.

Phil Carpenter, of Fort Benning, 1931 heavyweight champion, fights Quint Adams, the Tech star, for the light-heavyweight crown in one of tonight's features.

TECH HEADS PARADE.

Georgia Tech heads the parade with championship contenders with four fighters. Quint Adams, Jack Butler, Elmo Fryer and Norris Dean will battle for the White and Gold tonight.

Only Ed Reed is left to represent Tech High, while Jack Willis will carry the colors of G. M. A. into the championship ring. The exhibition and both teams showed fine early season form.

The Petrels go to Cedarhurst Saturday for another exhibition game. It is one of three remaining exhibition games before the opening of the Dixie College league April 1.

The others were charged with luring Harrison, with five other drivers, was disqualified for beating the starters' gun.

Townsend and Chapman said a hearing on the charges would be held in New York next week. No definite date was set. The racers will be asked to appear personally, but those unable to do so will testify by deposition.

Chapman said one of the drivers whom he would not name told him the nine Americans purposely beat the gun to draw Harrison across the line and into disqualification. He said the Englishman was leading on points for the trophy when the final heat started.

Crawford, a student at the University of Miami, said he was not a party to any conspiracy against Harrison, and said he believed it would be impossible to get nine racers to line up and to disqualify. He was behind the pack at the start, he said, because of motor trouble.

PETRELS BEAT GOODYEAR, 11-5

LARGE CROWD SEES CHARITY GAME; BAKER AND GEORGE LEAD HITTING.

CARTERSVILLE, March 25.—Oglethorpe's Stormy Petrels of the diamond won their first game of the season here today, defeating the Goodyear team, 11 to 5, in a game played before more than 1,000 spectators for the benefit of the storm sufferers.

The game, played under the auspices of the Red Cross of Cartersville, was fast, and in the early innings the score was close.

Oglethorpe bunched hits and took advantage of every scoring opportunity. Goodyear drove B. Clark from the mound in the third inning with a barrage of base hits. Lefty Dixon, pitcher, struck out one, but left Mitchell relieved him in the eighth inning. Mitchell finished the game without experiencing undue trouble.

The hitting of Sam Baker, center fielder, and Charles George, left fielder, with four safeties apiece, was the best of the day. Hal Martin, visiting shortstop, got three hits, one a triple. Oglethorpe scored five runs in the first inning and both teams showed fine early season form.

The Petrels go to Cedarhurst Saturday for another exhibition game. It is one of three remaining exhibition games before the opening of the Dixie College league April 1.

M'Henry Leads Leafs' Attack With 3 Blows

Howard, Bream, Starling Hurl for Barron; Final Game Today.

By Jimmy Jones.

A low peg got away from "Whitney" Mock to the stands, and under the rules, Harry Davis continued unmolested, home with the run that gave the Toronto Leafs a 5-to-0 victory over the Atlanta Crackers in the third game of their series yesterday.

The Leafs outbatted the Crackers, 12 to 1, and probably deserved the victory at that.

The Crackers got hold of the ball several times for what would have been the ball game, but the Leafs were alert.

To start the Cracker half of the ninth, Emile (Red) Barnes, the old "Bama" hurler, drove one clear out to the centerfield picket but, Arthur McHenry got under it to make the prettiest catch of the game. Mock hit a line drive in this inning, but it was taken in by Frank Doljack in left.

CARDS DEFEAT DODGERS, 7 TO 1; PITCHING GREAT

Sylvester Johnson Touch-ed for Lone Single in Five Innings.

BRADENTON, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—With Sylvester Johnson and Jim Lindsey combining to hold the Dodgers to one hit, the world champion St. Louis Cardinals defeated Brooklyn, 7 to 1, today.

Cuccinello connected with the Dodgers' only hit—a single off Johnson in the fifth—was the only Brooklyn player to reach first base during the five innings Johnson pitched.

The Dodgers were saved from a shutout without getting a hit when Lindsey walked Boone and Frederick in the ninth. Both advanced on an infield out and Boone scored while Adams was throwing out Stripp.

The Cards pounded Clark for four runs and nine hits in the first six innings and continued their attack off Moore in the seventh.

Clark, Moore and Lindsey, Johnson, Lindsey and Wilson, Mancuso.

COTTON STATES IS REORGANIZED

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 25.—(AP)—The Cotton States league, venerable Class D baseball loop, will operate again this year, but it has gone west for support and will include a Texas entry on its roster.

Frank A. Scott, of Vicksburg, president of the organization, said yesterday that he had assured that Leon Rouge, Bogalusa, and Monroe, La., El Dorado and Pine Bluff, Ark., and Port Arthur, Texas, would have teams in the league this season.

Negotiations are under way in Vicksburg and Hot Springs for entrance of clubs, but if they fall through the league will operate this year without them.

Every city of any size in Mississippi has been in the league at one time or another. It was born in the Mississippi delta and eventually moved south into Mississippi cities. Poor cotton crops and a lagging interest forced the cities out one by one and Louisiana and Arkansas were added. Now the league has come into east Texas for support.

Jackson, one of the mainstays of the Cotton States, has entered the Southeastern league.

The climax to Tarzan's amazing experiences came a few days after he found himself in chains. Passing down a corridor which his prison chamber faced, he saw a file of Veltorismakian warriors. They were as large as himself, and each was mounted upon a huge antelope. In contour and markings the animals were obviously the Royal Antelope, which is the smallest known. The ape-man ran his brown fingers through his hair and gave up attempting to solve the enigma.

His wounds healed quickly, as did those of the warriors confined with him. On the seventh day six armed Veltorismakians came for him. His chain was removed, and he was ordered to follow them. His captors had ceased to talk to him, leaving him ignorant of their language. From their conversations among themselves, however, the ape-man discovered that he was being taken before their king, Elkomohago, who had expressed a desire to see this remarkable captive when he had recovered from his wounds.

The long corridor through which they were proceeding was partially lighted by the same amazing smokeless candles that previously had aroused Tarzan's curiosity. Slaves and warriors moved in two continuous and opposing lines through this corridor and every one that crossed it. There were high caste slaves in white tunics, green-tinted slaves of the second generation; warriors of every rank and position; all mingled with the jeweled studded harness of the rich.

And passing all these, often at high speed, were other warriors mounted upon what seemed to Tarzan mighty antelopes. These were to him still the greatest wonder of all. At intervals along the corridor he saw ladies extending to a floor above. As he never saw one descending to a lower level he concluded he was on the lowest floor of the structure. He was certain this building was similar to the dome he had seen in the course of construction in the city of Adendroahiki.
